UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

RIO MAR ASSOCIATES, L.P., S.E., a Delaware Limited

Case No. 07 CV 8227 (GBD)

Plaintiff,

DECLARATION OF
PETER M. AGULNICK

-against-

MIXSHOW POWER SUMMIT, INC., a New York corporation; THE POWER SUMMIT, INC., a New York corporation; RPM MARKETING & PROMOTIONS,
INC., a New York corporation; and RENE McLEAN, a
New York resident,

Defendants.

-----X

PETER M. AGULNICK, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1746, states the following under penalty of perjury:

1. I am a principal of the law firm of Peter M. Agulnick, P.C., counsel of record for Defendants THE POWER SUMMIT, INC., RPM KARKETING & PROMOTIONS, and RENE McLEAN (hereinafter collectively “my clients”).

2. I submit this declaration in support of the present motion seeking an Order containing the following relief:

(A) Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. Pro. 12(b)(5) and 60(b)(3), dismissing this case and vacating the default judgment that this Court has issued after false representations that Defendants have been properly served pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure; and

(B) such other relief that is appropriate.

3. RENE McLEAN's attached declaration states that he has never been afforded proper service of process. Thus, Plaintiff has improperly procured a default judgment against my clients as is explained below.

4. Plaintiff purports to have served RENE McLEAN, personally, and on behalf of the corporate defendants as a supposed "agent." A copy of Plaintiff's affidavits of service are filed here as Exhibit A.

5. Plaintiff's Affidavits of Service state that Plaintiff's process server delivered documents to RENE McLEAN but describe an entirely different person. The Affidavits of Service describe a white male when, in fact, RENE McLEAN is actually African American (McLean Declaration at ¶ 4.) In addition, the other description of RENE McLEAN is inaccurate as well (McLean Declaration at ¶ 4).

6. Prior to the present litigation, Plaintiff's counsel conducted a face-to-face deposition of RENE McLEAN in a related state-court action. Therefore, Plaintiff's counsel must have known that RENE McLEAN is not white and that his process server failed to properly serve RENE McLEAN in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

7. Moreover, Plaintiff's counsel should never have moved for a default judgment and submitted an Affidavit in Support of Application for Certificate of Default adopting erroneous Affidavits of Service attached to his papers. (A copy of Plaintiffs' counsel's Affidavit containing the erroneous Affidavits of Service are annexed here as Exhibit B, and the default judgment Plaintiff improperly obtained is annexed here as Exhibit C).

8. Based upon the above, Plaintiff has failed to effectuate service of process upon my clients, which deprives this Court of personal jurisdiction. This Court should, therefore, dismiss Plaintiff's case as against my clients and vacate the default judgment.

9. Finally, despite that I personally represented RENE McLEAN in a prior related proceeding in state court where Plaintiff's counsel deposed RENE McLEAN, Plaintiff's counsel never sent me a courtesy copy of his motion for a default judgment or any of the pleadings for the present case. Although, perhaps, not required because I filed an appearance in the state action but had not yet done so in the present federal action, it certainly was contrary to well-established customs and courtesies practiced by members of the New York state and Federal bar.

10. After I found out that Plaintiff had obtained a default judgment against my clients, I called Plaintiff's counsel and informed him that RENE McLEAN was never properly served and that his affidavits of service were obviously erroneous. In addition, I followed up by sending Plaintiff's counsel a letter, a copy of which is annexed here as Exhibit D.

11. Notwithstanding, Plaintiff's counsel has refused to stipulate to vacate the default judgment. I even told Plaintiff's counsel that I would have, as a professional courtesy, accepted service for my clients if he were to stipulate to vacate the default judgment so that I would not have to burden the parties -- and this Court -- with unnecessary motion practice and the need for Plaintiff to bring a second action after the present one is dismissed. Plaintiff's counsel still refused.

12. Accordingly, I was forced to make the present motion to this Court seeking to dismiss Plaintiff's action and to vacate the default judgment that was improperly obtained against my clients.

13. There has been no prior request for this relief.

WHEREFORE, Defendants THE POWER SUMMIT, INC., RPM KARKETING & PROMOTIONS, and RENE McLEAN request that this Court issue an Order containing the following relief:

(A) Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. Pro. 12(b)(5) and 60(b)(3), dismissing this case and vacating the default judgment that this Court has issued after false representations that Defendants have been properly served pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure; and

(B) such other relief that is appropriate.

DECLARATION OF RENE
McLEAN

-against-

MIXSHOW POWER SUMMIT, INC., a New York corporation; THE POWER SUMMIT, INC., a New York corporation; RPM MARKETING & PROMOTIONS, INC., a New York corporation; and RENE McLEAN, a New York resident, Defendants.

-----X

RENE McLEAN, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1746, states the following under penalty of perjury:

1. I am one of the Defendants named in the caption of this case.
2. I was never personally handed a copy of a Summons and Complaint for this case. My attorney informs me that, under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Plaintiff has failed to properly effectuate service of process.
3. My attorney has also informed me that Plaintiff has filed affidavits of service (copies of which are annexed here as Exhibit C) that purport to serve me on behalf of myself and the other corporate Defendants. Those affidavits are false as is explained below:
4. Plaintiff's affidavits describe me as a white person. I am not white. I am an African American. Moreover the other physical description of me is wrong as well.

5. Clearly, Plaintiff's affidavits are false and I was never personally served with a copy of the summons and complaint.

MIXSHOW POWER SUMMIT, INC., a
New York corporation; THE POWER SUMMIT,
INC., a New York corporation; RPM MARKETING
& PROMOTIONS, INC., a New York corporation; and RENE McLEAN, a New York resident,

Defendants.

THIS MATTER having come before the Court on Plaintiff's Motion for Entry of Default Judgment on October 19, 2007, and the Court having reviewed the pleadings of record and examined the evidence and being sufficiently advised in the premises, finds that the default of Defendants was duly entered by the Clerk of this Court; that Plaintiff's remaining claim is for a sum certain; that none of the Defendants is an infant, in the military, or an incompetent person; and that Plaintiff is entitled to the relief requested.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that judgment be entered in favor of Plaintiff Rio Mar Associates, L.P., S.E. and against Defendants The Power Summit, Inc. and Rene McLean in the amount of $167,868.36, plus interest at the rate of seven percent (7%) per annum, running from October 28, 2003 until paid in full.

Claims against all other defendants are hereby dismissed without prejudice.
